IN RE: AMENDMENTS TO THE RULES OF ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE OF THE KENTUCKY COURT OF JUSTICE, AP
PART III, PERSONNEL POLICIES

Under Section 110(5)(b) and 116 of the Constitution of Kentucky, it is ORDERED that the Rules of Administrative Procedure of the Kentucky Court of Justice, AP Part III, Personnel Policies, is deleted in its entirety and replaced by the Personnel Policies attached hereto.

Entered this 1st day of May, 2014.

CHIEF JUSTICE

All sitting; Minton, C.J.; Abramson, Noble and Venters, JJ., concur. Cunningham, Keller and Scott, JJ., concur in part and dissent in part, as follows:

1.04(8)(a). Cunningham, J., dissents: I object to subsection (a) in the definition of family under Section 1.04(8). I would delete the language defining “a person of similarly close relationship” as: “an intimate partner who has resided with the employee for at least one year.” Such language defies all conventional and traditional understanding of “family” and potentially reduces the concept to the most casual relationships. Most importantly, it is an end run around the legislative and constitutional ban upon gay marriage—a maneuver, I believe, is inappropriate for the Court of Justice.

2.06(2)(a). Cunningham, Keller and Scott, JJ., dissent.

Cunningham, J., dissents; Scott, J., joins: I vote against this rule. I believe all employees should be able to run for public office without being forbidden to do so by the Court of Justice. Our deputy clerks are paid too little as it is. If persons want to improve their plight by running for public office, they should be allowed to do so without losing their jobs, as long as their candidacy does not interfere with their job performance or disrupt the work place.

Keller, J., dissents: I believe that the Chief Deputy Clerks, who are non-tenured, and serve at the pleasure of the elected Circuit Clerk, should be exempt. As non-tenured employees, they have little to no employment protections, so I ask, why do we really care so much about this historical practice? Additionally, in a broader sense, I am unable to see the equity in applying this only to partisan-elected offices, and not to non-partisan offices.

3.01(1)(a). Cunningham, J., dissents: I would vote against this rule without an explicit definition of “sexual orientation.” I would define “sexual orientation,” under Section 3.01(a), as “sexual or romantic attraction of an adult person to other adult persons of the same gender, the opposite gender, or to both, or to neither.” To my knowledge the term “sexual orientation” has no standard and generally acceptable definition, and has been referenced in at least one article dealing with pedophilia. I wish to avoid future litigation wherein the courts have to define it when conduct in question may be of some kind of sexual perversion which is either illegal or unacceptable to the Court of Justice.

3.10. Keller, J., dissents: I would exclude elected Circuit Clerks from an absolute prohibition of their right to practice law. Statutes and rules do not specifically prohibit circuit clerks, trial commissioners, master commissioners, senior judges, mediators, etc., from practicing law; but to avoid any appearance of impropriety, best practices would require them to abstain from practicing in their home circuit. This is an ethical issue and is more properly dealt with by the Circuit Clerks through the application of their Circuit Clerks Code of Conduct.

5.01. Cunningham, J., dissents: I vote against Section 5.01 to the extent that it does not allow the hiring of persons under the age of 18. I think the employment of minors should be left to the discretion of the appointing authority and the dictates of law. In some cases, the employment of minors might be wholesome, instructive, and helpful. We should not establish a blanket bar to this practice.

5.06. Scott, J., dissents: I would let the Circuit Clerk decide whether to close the Circuit Clerk's office due to adverse weather.

7.04(2)(b)(vi). Cunningham, J., dissents: I dissent as to the definition of "a person of similarly close relationship" as "an intimate partner who has resided with the employee for at least one year prior to application." What is "intimate"? What is "partner"? The terms use in this context denotes "A legal status substantially similar to that of marriage," in contravention of Section 233A of our Kentucky Constitution.

SECTION 1.02 Applicability of the Policies

These Policies are applicable to all employees in the KCOJ.

SECTION 1.03 Elected and Appointed Officials

These Policies are not applicable to elected and appointed officials in the KCOJ, unless otherwise specified.

SECTION 1.04 Definitions

As used throughout these Policies, the following definitions apply:

- (1) "Appointing authority" means an individual who is authorized to act on behalf of an agency or office of the KCOJ with respect to appointments, position actions, payroll documents, leave requests and disciplinary actions, in conformity with the Policies of the KCOJ set forth herein, subject to the best interests of the KCOJ as determined by the Chief Justice as the Chief Executive Officer of the KCOJ.
- (2) "Appointed official" means an individual who is appointed as a trial commissioner, domestic relations commissioner, or master commissioner in the KCOJ. This does not include an appointed Judge or Circuit Court Clerk.
- (3) "AOC Director" means the Director of the AOC, who acts as the Chief Justice's designee with authority to administer these Policies, including, but not limited to, the enforcement of final disciplinary actions. The AOC Director is the appointing authority for personnel at the Administrative Office of the Courts.
- (4) "Chief Deputy Clerk" means a deputy clerk who has the requisite abilities and knowledge of the operation of the Office of Circuit Court Clerk and serves in a general supervisory capacity in relation to all other deputy clerks. There may be one Chief Deputy Clerk for every 15 deputy clerks in an Office of Circuit Court Clerk. The AOC Director may set a maximum number of Chief Deputy Clerks for an office. The employee who is selected to serve as the Chief Deputy Clerk must formally accept such designation in writing, a copy of which will be forwarded to the AOC HR Department and placed in that individual's personnel file.
- (5) "Co-op/Intern" means an individual who may receive academic credit and may also receive compensation. A co-op/intern who receives compensation is governed under the same rules as temporary employees.

- (6) "Elected official" means an individual who is elected or appointed to a constitutional office in the KCOJ. The elected official is the appointing authority for the personnel in his or her office.
- (7) "Employee" means an individual hired into a position in the KCOJ, whether tenured or non-tenured (at-will), for which he or she is compensated on a full-time or part-time basis.
- (8) "Family" means the employee's spouse, child, parent, grandparent, brother, or sister, or a person of similarly close relationship defined as: (a) an intimate partner who has resided with the employee for at least one year; or (b) one for whom the employee is legally responsible.
- (9) "General Counsel" means the General Counsel for the AOC in Frankfort, Kentucky.
- (10) "Human Resources Administrator (HRA)" means the Human Resources Administrator at the AOC HR Department in Frankfort, Kentucky.

No provision in other KCOJ policies and procedures alters this status.
 - (3) Non-tenured employees must sign the Non-Tenured Status Acknowledgment Form and submit it to the HR Department. Failure to submit the acknowledgment form does not change an employee's at-will status.

SECTION 1.06 Tenured Employees

- (1) All positions not addressed in Section 1.05 of these Policies are considered tenured positions.
- (2) Any employee hired into a tenured position may attain tenured status upon successful completion of a probationary period, as determined by the appointing authority. See Section 4.03 of these Policies.

SECTION 2. Code of Conduct

As public servants, employees of the KCOJ have a duty to manage their professional and personal affairs in a manner that maintains and promotes public confidence in the judicial system. Confidential information includes, but is not limited to, procedures, manuals, reports, communications, and financial information.
- (2) Employees, current and former, must not directly or indirectly:

 - (b) Employees who seek to hold a nonpartisan office are not required to terminate their employment prior to filing for election to the nonpartisan office as long as campaigning does not interfere with the performance of their duties. Any employee who intends to seek a nonpartisan office shall notify his or her appointing authority prior to filing for election.
 - (c) Pursuant to Kentucky Constitution §165 and KRS 61.080, there are certain offices considered incompatible by law. When considering any elected or appointed political office, these sources must be consulted. Acceptance of an incompatible office voids the first office as a matter of law.

 - (xiv) Distributing campaign literature or material.
 - (xv) Initiating or circulating partisan political nominating petitions.
 - (xvi) Canvassing a district or soliciting political support from a party, faction, or candidate, either in person or in writing.

Harassment based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, and disability is prohibited by Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended; the Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA"), as amended; the Age Discrimination in Employment Act ("ADEA"); and KRS 344.040 of the Kentucky Civil Rights Act, as well as various local ordinances.

- (c) “Quid Pro Quo Harassment” means unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or other verbal or physical conduct when submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual’s employment or submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for an employment decision affecting such individual.

Workplace harassment may take, but is not limited to, the following forms:

(4) Patterns of Unlawful Workplace Harassment

In accordance with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the KCOJ recognizes that unlawful workplace harassment may include the following considerations:

- (a) A man or a woman may be the victim of sexual harassment, and a man or a woman may be the harasser.
 - (b) The victim does not need to be different from the harasser in race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, sexual orientation, political affiliation, or any other characteristic protected by law.
- (5) Reporting Unlawful Workplace Harassment

- (a) The KCOJ is committed to prohibiting unlawful workplace harassment before it rises to the level of a violation of state or federal law. All employees, elected officials, appointed officials, managerial staff, and supervisory staff must immediately report all allegations of unlawful workplace harassment to the HR Director in writing on the KCOJ Employee Complaint Form, as required by Section 3.02(7).
- (b) The KCOJ will protect the confidentiality of unlawful workplace harassment allegations as practical and to the extent required by law. However, the KCOJ has a duty to investigate all complaints of workplace harassment, even if the complainant withdraws the complaint or does not wish to pursue the matter.

(6) Retaliation Prohibited

Employees, elected officials, and appointed officials are prohibited from retaliating against a person who, in good faith, reports or corroborates unlawful workplace harassment, or otherwise assists in the investigation.

(7) Complaint Process

- (a) Any person who has a good faith complaint of unlawful workplace harassment must notify the HR Director in writing on the KCOJ Employee Complaint Form. The KCOJ Employee Complaint Form must be submitted within two business days of the alleged harassment or as soon as practical. If the HR Director is absent, the General Counsel must be notified. If the HR Director or the General Counsel is the alleged harasser, then the employee or supervisor must notify the AOC Director or designee.
- (b) When a complaint is made, immediate and appropriate action must be taken to assure that the complaining party, alleged harasser, appointing authority, and any witnesses are aware of the KCOJ unlawful workplace harassment policy.
- (c) Upon receiving the complaint, the HR Director, with agreement of the General Counsel, may immediately take any protective measures necessary for the safety of the parties and affected employees. The HR Director or designee must inform the alleged harasser in writing that a complaint has been filed and to have no contact of any kind with the complaining party. The alleged harasser must also be informed to refrain from any retaliation and to not interfere with the investigation. The HR Director or designee will inform the complaining party in writing that an investigation will begin as soon as possible.
- (d) The HR Director or designee, in cooperation with the General Counsel or designee, will coordinate and conduct an investigation. In extraordinary circumstances, the AOC Director's Office may require that the investigation be conducted by an outside investigator. The investigation will include interviews with all relevant persons, including the alleged harasser. The HR Director or designee will have 45 calendar days to complete the investigation. Failure to meet this deadline will not invalidate the findings of the investigation. Information regarding the complaint must be kept as confidential as possible.

- (e) Within 15 calendar days of completing the investigation, the HR Director or designee, after consulting with the General Counsel or designee, will present his or her written report to the alleged harasser and allow the accused an opportunity to submit a written response, including the right to provide documentary evidence and identify individuals who may have relevant information. If the 15-day deadline is insufficient, the General Counsel may grant an extension of 15 calendar days.
- (f) The alleged harasser will have 15 calendar days to submit a written response and supporting documentation. Within 15 calendar days of receipt of the response, the HR Director or designee will present the final report, with findings and recommendations, and the alleged harasser's written response to the AOC Director.
- (g) Within 30 calendar days of receipt of the HR Director's or designee's final report, the AOC Director or designee will issue a written final decision to both the complaining party and the alleged harasser, which shall include the allegations, findings, conclusions, and disposition. SECTION 3.03 Disability Accommodations

(1) Statement of Policy

The KCOJ is committed to complying fully with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and the Kentucky Civil Rights Act, which prohibit discrimination based on disability and ensure equal opportunity in employment for qualified individuals with disabilities. The KCOJ ADA Coordinator processes requests for reasonable accommodations consistent with current ADA law and, where appropriate, ensures reasonable accommodations are provided in a prompt, fair, and efficient manner. The ADA Coordinator also processes grievances related to the ADA.

(2) Application

This policy applies to elected and appointed officials, as well as all employees, co-ops/interns, temporary employees, and volunteers.

(3) Definitions

The following definitions apply to this section:

(a) "Reasonable Accommodation" means modifications or adjustments to:

- (i) A job application process that enables a qualified applicant with a disability to be considered for the position desired;
- (ii) The work environment, or the manner or circumstances under which the position held or desired is customarily performed, to enable a qualified individual with a disability to perform the essential functions of that position; or
- (iii) Enable an employee with a disability to enjoy equal benefits and privileges of employment as are enjoyed by other similarly situated employees without disabilities.

(b) "Disability" means, with respect to an individual:

- (i) A physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more of an individual's major life activities;
- (ii) A record of such an impairment; or
- (iii) Being regarded as having such an impairment.

- (c) “Major Life Activities” means activities that include, but are not limited to, caring for oneself, performing manual tasks, seeing, hearing, eating, sleeping, walking, standing, lifting, bending, speaking, breathing, learning, reading, concentrating, thinking, communicating, interacting with others, and working. These also include the operation of a major bodily function, including but not limited to, functions of the immune system, special sense organs and skin, normal cell growth, digestive, bowel, bladder, neurological, brain, respiratory, circulatory, cardiovascular, endocrine, hemic, lymphatic, musculoskeletal, and reproductive functions.
 - (d) “Qualified Individual with a Disability” means an individual with a disability who satisfies the requisite skill, experience, education and other job-related requirements of the position such individual holds or desires, and who, with or without reasonable accommodation, can perform the essential functions of such position.
 - (e) “Essential Functions” means the fundamental job duties of an employment position. A function can be essential if, among other things: the position exists specifically to perform that function; there are a limited number of other employees who could perform the function; or, the function is specialized and the individual is hired based on his or her ability to perform it. This term does not include the marginal functions of the position.
 - (f) “Undue Hardship” means a specific accommodation would require significant difficulty or expense. Determination of undue hardship is made on a case-by-case basis, considering factors that may include, but not be limited to, the nature or cost of the accommodation needed and the impact of the accommodation on the operations of the office or agency.
- (4) Request for Reasonable Accommodation
- (a) An employee may request a reasonable accommodation from his or her appointing authority either verbally or by completing form AOC-ADA-1, Request for Accommodation. Upon receipt, the appointing authority or designee must submit the request and the completed form to the ADA Coordinator at the AOC office in Frankfort.
 - (b) A verbal request for an accommodation must be confirmed in writing by the employee within seven calendar days by completing form AOC-ADA-1. An employee must submit the completed form to his or her appointing authority.
 - (c) The KCOJ may require medical information when an employee has requested a reasonable accommodation to determine whether an employee has an ADA-covered disability and if the employee can continue to perform his or her essential job functions. When the disability and the need for accommodation are obvious, the KCOJ will not seek any further medical information. When the disability or need for accommodation is not obvious, the KCOJ may ask the individual for reasonable documentation about his or her disability and functional limitations.

- (d) Upon request, the employee must have his or her licensed health care professional complete form AOC-ADA-2, Request for Accommodation Medical Report (Medical Report), with instructions that the health care professional forward the Medical Report to the ADA Coordinator. The employee also must complete form PER 5.1, Authorization to Release Medical Information, and provide it to his or her health care professional so that the health care professional may release the Medical Report to the ADA Coordinator.
 - (e) Medical information obtained in connection with the reasonable accommodation process will be kept confidential and placed in a file separate from the employee's personnel file.
 - (f) Failure to provide appropriate documentation or to cooperate with the efforts of the ADA Coordinator to obtain such documentation may result in denial of the reasonable accommodation.
- (5) Disability Determination and Need for a Reasonable Accommodation
- (a) Before addressing the merits of the accommodation request, the ADA Coordinator first must determine whether the employee is a qualified individual with a disability under the ADA.
 - (b) If the ADA Coordinator or designee reasonably believes that the employee is a qualified individual with a disability, the ADA Coordinator will work with the employee to identify potential reasonable accommodations. The ADA Coordinator must determine:
 - (i) Whether the accommodation is needed;
 - (ii) The effectiveness each potential accommodation would have in enabling the employee to perform the essential functions of the position;
 - (iii) If the requested accommodation is effective and whether providing the accommodation would pose an undue hardship on the office or agency;
 - (iv) If there would be an alternative accommodation that would not pose an undue hardship on the office or agency;
 - (v) If there is no alternative accommodation, whether there is an equivalent vacant position for which the employee is qualified and may be reassigned, unless to do so would pose an undue hardship on the office or agency; and
 - (vi) If there is no vacant equivalent position, whether there is a vacant lower-level position for which the employee is qualified and may be reassigned, unless to do so would pose an undue hardship on the office or agency.

- (6) Notification to Grant or Deny Reasonable Accommodation Request
 - (a) The HR Director or designee must provide the employee with written notification and an explanation of the decision to grant or deny the request.
 - (b) The reasonable accommodation granted may not be the accommodation requested by the employee. The HR Director or designee has the ultimate discretion to choose between effective accommodations. If the reasonable accommodation cannot be provided immediately, the HR Director or designee must inform the employee when it will be provided.
 - (c) If a reasonable accommodation request is denied and the employee is not satisfied with the result, the employee may file a complaint with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), the Kentucky Commission on Human Rights, or the applicable local human rights commission.

SECTION 5.05 Timesheets

- (2) Each part-time or temporary employee must complete and submit a timesheet within five working days from the end of the pay period.
- (3) The appointing authority or designee must review and submit an approved timesheet for each employee to the AOC HR Department. Failure to approve an employee's timesheet may result in future withholding of that employee's wages until worked hours can be verified.

- (i) Sick leave may be donated from one state employee to another, including employees from another branch of government. All salary and wage payments donated under this section to an employee while on sick leave will be paid by the agency employing the person who receives the donated leave.
 - (ii) Requests for donating and receiving sick leave must be made through the timesheet process and on approved forms provided by the AOC HR Department. The AOC HR Department will maintain records of sick leave donations and employees' use of donated sick leave.
 - (iii) An employee on shared sick leave will receive the same benefits as an employee on regular sick leave as described in Section 7.03(3).

 - (v) No employee shall directly or indirectly intimidate, threaten, coerce, or attempt to intimidate, threaten, or coerce any other employee for the purpose of interfering with the employee's right to voluntarily contribute sick leave when authorized under this section. For the purpose of this subsection, "intimidate, threaten, or coerce" includes, but is not limited to, promising to give or giving a benefit or effecting or threatening to effect any reprisal.
- (b) Responsibilities of Employee Requesting Sick Leave Sharing
- (i) An employee requesting sick leave sharing must complete and submit a Recipient Form to his or her appointing authority for review and signature. The appointing authority will submit the form to the AOC HR Department for review and approval.
 - (ii) The HR Department will send out a notification of request upon approval.

 - (v) Upon receipt of the medical certification allowing the employee to return to work full-time, any remaining balance of donated sick time will be returned to the donor.

(c) Request to Receive Sick Leave Sharing

An appointing authority, including an elected official, must permit an employee to receive sick leave under this section if:

- (i) The employee or a member of the employee's family suffers from a medically certified illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that has caused, or is likely to cause, the employee to be on leave for at least 10 consecutive working days;
- (ii) The employee's need for absence and use of leave are certified by a licensed practicing physician or advanced practice registered nurse;

- (iii) The donated sick leave will be subtracted from the donating employee's sick leave balance in the month of donation.
- (iv) An employee donating sick leave is responsible for ensuring that his or her timesheet appropriately reflects the donation. The donating employee must contact the AOC HR Department within the month of donation to correct any errors on his or her timesheet.

(5) Sick Leave Abuse

Earned sick leave with pay is intended as a benefit to use at those times when there is a bona fide need for it. The KCOJ has defined the terms for using sick leave very broadly, recognizing that there are many circumstances other than an employee's own unexpected illness when he or she might justifiably claim sick leave.

Sick leave cannot, however, be used for unnecessary occasions when it would be convenient for an employee to be absent. For those times, the employee must apply for annual or compensatory leave. The employee who abuses sick leave causes either a work slow-down or places an unfair strain upon fellow workers who must do the work in his or her absence. In consideration for fellow workers, the agency, and the people the KCOJ serves, employees should spend sick time wisely.

SECTION 7.04 Family and Medical Leave

(1) General

- (a) This section shall be construed in a manner consistent with the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 (FMLA), 29 U.S.C. § 2601 et seq., as amended by the National Defense Authorization Act, and 29 CFR Part 825, and any subsequent amendments.
- (b) The KCOJ recognizes that FMLA makes it unlawful for any employer to interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of any right provided under the Act. FMLA also makes it unlawful for any employer to discharge or discriminate against any person for opposing any practice made unlawful by FMLA or for involvement in any proceeding under or relating to FMLA.
- (c) All documents relating to family and medical leave will be maintained in a file separate from an employee's personnel file and will be confidential.

(2) Employee Eligibility

- (a) FMLA applies to employees who have:
 - (i) Been employed for at least 12 months; and
 - (ii) Worked or been in paid status at least 1,250 hours during the 12-month period immediately before the use of family and medical leave is to begin.
- (b) An employee is eligible for family and medical leave if the employee:
 - (i) Has a serious health condition that causes him or her to be temporarily unable to perform the essential functions of his or her position;
 - (ii) Has a child born to him or her, adopts a child, or has a child placed in his or her home for foster care;
 - (iii) Is caring for a newborn child, adopts a child, or has a child placed in his or her home for foster care, within one year of the birth, adoption or placement;
 - (iv) Is caring for his or her parent who has a serious health condition;

- (v) Is caring for his or her child, defined as biological, adopted or foster child, stepchild, legal ward, or child of a person standing in loco parentis, who has a serious health condition;
 - (vi) Is caring for his or her spouse, or person of similarly close relationship, who has a serious health condition. A person of similarly close relationship is defined as an intimate partner who has resided with the employee for at least one year prior to application;
 - (vii) Meets certain qualifying exigencies arising out of his or her spouse's, child's, or parent's deployment, covered active duty status, or notification of an impending call or order to covered active duty status, in or to a foreign country ("qualifying exigency leave"). Qualifying exigency leave only applies to families of members in the Armed Forces, including the National Guard and Reserves, and certain retired members of the military. Qualifying exigency leave includes: short-notice deployment; certain military events and related activities; certain childcare and school activities; addressing certain financial and legal arrangements; attending certain counseling activities; rest and recuperation; attending certain post-deployment activities; and additional purposes arising out of the call to duty, as agreed on by the employee and employer; or
 - (viii) Is caring for his or her spouse, son, daughter, parent or next of kin (nearest blood relative) who is a covered service member. A covered service member includes a member of the Armed Forces, including a member of the National Guard or Reserves, who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy, is otherwise in outpatient status, or is otherwise on the temporary disability retired list for a serious injury or illness; or a veteran who was a member of the Armed Forces, including the National Guard or Reserves, at any time during the five years preceding the date on which the veteran underwent that medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy.
- (c) A serious health condition is an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves either an overnight stay in a medical care facility, or continuing treatment by a health care provider for a condition that either prevents the employee from performing the functions of the employee's job, or prevents the qualified family member from participating in school or other daily activities.
- (d) Subject to certain conditions, the continuing treatment requirement may be met by:
- (i) A period of incapacity of more than three consecutive calendar days that requires in-person treatment by a health care provider within the first seven days of the first day of incapacity, and:
 - 1. A second visit to a health care provider within 30 calendar days of the first day of incapacity unless extenuating circumstances exist; or

2. A regimen of continuing treatment (i.e., prescription medication, further medical visits, etc.) under the health care provider's supervision;
 - (ii) Incapacity due to pregnancy;
 - (iii) Incapacity due to a chronic serious health condition that requires periodic visits for treatment (at least twice per year); or
 - (iv) Other conditions to the extent required by law.
- (e) A medical condition will be deemed a serious injury or illness for purposes of 2(b)(viii) if the injury or illness was incurred or aggravated in the line of active duty and causes the member to be medically unfit to perform the duties of the member's office, grade, rank or rating, and for which the service member is:
 - (i) Undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, or therapy;
 - (ii) In outpatient status; or
 - (iii) On the temporary disability retired list.
- (f) An eligible employee as defined in 2(b)(i-vii) is entitled to 12 weeks of family and medical leave during a 12-month period. An eligible employee as defined in 2(b)(viii) is entitled to 26 weeks of family and medical leave during a single 12-month period. Each 12-month period shall start from the date that family and medical leave is first used.
- (g) A week of family and medical leave will equal the amount of time an employee normally works each week.
- (h) For part-time employees, a weekly average of the hours worked during the 12 weeks before beginning family and medical leave will be used to determine their normal work week.
- (3) Request for Family and Medical Leave
 - (a) An employee must provide the appointing authority with a request for family and medical leave at least 30 calendar days before the leave is to begin if it is foreseeable based on an expected childbirth, placement for adoption or foster care, planned medical treatment for a serious health condition of the employee or a family member, or the planned medical treatment for a serious injury or illness of a covered service member.
 - (b) If the employee is unable to make the request at least 30 calendar days before the leave is to begin due to a medical emergency or change of circumstances, he or she must provide the appointing authority with a request for family and medical leave as soon as practical under the facts and circumstances of the particular case (generally the same day the employee learns of the need for leave or the next business day).

- (c) An employee must request family and medical leave by completing the Application for Family and Medical Leave and submitting the application to his or her appointing authority absent unusual circumstances. The appointing authority must immediately forward the application to the AOC HR Department.
- (d) In all circumstances, when giving notice of the need for leave, the employee must provide sufficient information for the KCOJ to determine if the leave qualifies for FMLA protection. Failure to provide sufficient notice may result in family and medical leave being delayed or denied.
- (e) Once an employee has requested family and medical leave, the AOC HR Department will inform the employee within five business days, absent extenuating circumstances, whether he or she is eligible for such leave. If the employee is eligible, the employee will be instructed as to whether any additional information is required, and as to his or her rights and responsibilities under FMLA. If the leave is not eligible, the AOC HR Department will provide at least one reason for the ineligibility.
- (f) An employee who requests family and medical leave for purposes of tending to their own or a family member's serious health condition, or a seriously ill or injured covered service member, must supply a certification by a health care provider within 15 calendar days after the request for leave, using the appropriate Certification of Health Care Provider Form, which includes the following:
 - (i) The employee is in need of care;
 - (ii) The employee is needed to care for a family member; or
 - (iii) The presence of the employee is necessary to the immediate family member in need of care.

The AOC HR Department will notify the employee, in writing, if it finds the certification incomplete or insufficient and will specify what additional information is necessary to make the certification complete and sufficient. The employee will then have seven calendar days to provide a corrected certification (unless the deadline is not practical under the circumstances despite the employee's diligent and good faith efforts).

If the KCOJ has reason to doubt the validity of the certification provided, it may require the employee to obtain a second opinion from a physician selected by the KCOJ at the KCOJ's expense. If the second opinion is in conflict with the first, the KCOJ may require the employee, at the KCOJ's expense, to see a mutually agreed upon health care provider for a final and binding opinion.

Periodic recertification may be required to the extent permitted by law.

- (g) If an employee requests intermittent family and medical leave due to a serious medical condition of the employee or family member, the employee must supply a Certification of Health Care Provider Form from a licensed health care provider stating that intermittent leave is medically necessary and indicating the expected duration of the leave.

Employees taking intermittent leave must make reasonable efforts to schedule leave for planned medical treatment so as not to unduly disrupt the business of the KCOJ. In order to better accommodate an employee's need for intermittent leave, the KCOJ may transfer an employee to an alternate, available position for which the employee is qualified at equivalent pay and benefits.

- (h) If the leave is to address a qualifying exigency, the eligible employee must complete a Certification of Qualifying Exigency Form, accompanied by the required supporting documentation and a copy of the covered military member's deployment and/or covered active duty orders within 15 calendar days after the request for leave.
- (i) An employee who fails to timely complete a sufficient certification form may be denied family and medical leave, and will be subject to the KCOJ's other applicable leave and/or attendance policies. Appropriate certification forms are available from the AOC HR Department.
- (j) A licensed health care provider is a:
 - (i) Doctor of Medicine;
 - (ii) Doctor of Osteopathy;
 - (iii) Podiatrist;
 - (iv) Dentist;
 - (v) Clinical Psychologist;
 - (vi) Licensed Clinical Social Worker;
 - (vii) Optometrist;
 - (viii) Chiropractor;
 - (ix) Nurse Practitioner;
 - (x) Nurse Midwife;
 - (xi) Physician's Assistant; or
 - (xii) Certified Christian Science Practitioner.

(4) Approval of Family and Medical Leave

- (a) An employee who has requested family and medical leave must be notified in writing if he or she has been granted or denied family and medical leave within five business days after the AOC HR Department receives the completed and sufficient medical certification and application. At that time, the AOC HR Department will inform the employee whether the leave will be designated as family and medical leave, and, if so, the amount of leave that will be counted against the employee's leave entitlement.
- (b) Family and medical leave and any paid leave must be used concurrently. Unpaid family and medical leave may only be granted after all other paid leave is exhausted.

(5) Benefits During Family and Medical Leave

- (a) Any combination of working days, paid leave, or family and medical leave used by the employee within a month will entitle the employee to state-paid contributions for life insurance and health benefits in the following month.
- (b) Employees must use their family and medical leave days consecutively if they are unable to work and must elect to use family and medical leave as their only qualification for state contributions for life insurance and health benefits.
- (c) Employees on unpaid family and medical leave will be responsible for their share of contributions for life insurance and health benefits. The contributions will be due at the same time the contributions would be made by payroll deduction.
- (d) Employees who have used all of their paid leave and family and medical leave and remain unable to work for more than 100 hours in the month may only continue group health and life insurance benefits for the following month by paying the total cost of the state's contribution and their self-contribution for the benefits.
- (e) For each month that an employee is on leave without pay status for more than 100 hours in that month, the employee's annual or probationary increment will be postponed one month.

(6) Return from Family and Medical Leave

- (a) Before returning from family and medical leave, the employee must submit a Notice of Intention to Return to Work Form to his or her appointing authority or directly to the AOC HR Department. The appointing authority must immediately forward the form to the AOC HR Department.
- (b) An employee may be required to present a fitness-for-duty certificate to the AOC HR Department prior to being restored to employment. If such certification is not timely received, the employee's return to work may be delayed until certification is presented.

- (c) Upon returning from family and medical leave, the employee will be reinstated to his or her previous position or an equivalent position. An “equivalent position” will be virtually identical in terms of pay, benefits, working conditions, including privileges, prerequisites and status, and involve duties that are substantially similar to the employee’s previous position.
 - (d) On the first day of the employee’s return to work, his or her benefits will be reinstated as applicable.
 - (e) The KCOJ reserves the right to deny restoration to any key employee if it determines substantial and grievous economic injury will result if the employee is reinstated. Key employees are salaried employees and are among the highest paid 10 percent of all employees within 75 miles of the employee’s worksite.
- (7) Enforcement
- (a) An employee may file a complaint with the U.S. Wage and Hour Division, Department of Labor, or may bring a private lawsuit against an employer.
 - (b) FMLA does not affect any federal or state law prohibiting discrimination, or supersede any state or local law or collective bargaining agreement that provides greater family or medical leave rights.

(8) Questions

All questions and concerns relating to this Policy should be directed to the AOC HR Department.

SECTION 7.05 Voting Leave

- (1) To be eligible for voting leave, an employee must:
- (a) Be registered to vote in the county holding the election;
 - (b) Be scheduled to work on Election Day during the hours of 6:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. local time; and
 - (c) Notify the appointing authority prior to receiving voting leave.

Employees who are registered to vote are entitled to four hours of paid leave to vote or cast an absentee ballot.

- (2) The appointing authority may specify the hours during which an employee may be absent.
- (3) Any employee who exercises his or her right to leave for the purpose of voting under this section shall be subject to disciplinary action if the employee is not registered to vote or fails to cast his or her vote.

- (4) An employee is entitled to compensatory time instead of voting leave if the employee voted or cast an absentee ballot but did not miss any work hours to do so.
- (5) Employees on paid or unpaid leave are not entitled to voting leave.

SECTION 7.06 Blood Donation Leave

- (1) An employee who donates blood during regular business hours at a designated blood center certified by the Food and Drug Administration will receive four hours of compensatory leave.
- (2) In order to receive the compensatory time, an employee must schedule the time of the donation with his or her appointing authority prior to the donation.
- (3) An employee who attempts to donate blood and is turned away by the blood center will be excused for the time spent attempting to donate, but will not qualify for blood donation leave that day. The employee must provide proof of the attempt to donate blood to his or her appointing authority.
- (4) To receive the four hours of compensatory leave, employees must show proof of donation to their appointing authority before submitting their timesheet for the month in which the blood donation was made.
- (5) The appointing authority may set the number of times per year an employee may donate blood in exchange for the four hours of compensatory leave.

SECTION 7.07 Court Leave and Jury Duty Leave

- (1) An employee will be allowed a leave of absence from duties without loss of time or pay for the amount of time necessary to comply with subpoenas relating to his or her duties with the KCOJ by any federal or state court.
- (2) An employee serving as a juror will be allowed a leave of absence from duties without loss of time or pay not to exceed his or her regular hours for a scheduled work day.
- (3) An employee is permitted to keep any compensation received for jury services.
- (4) If the employee is relieved from duty as a juror or witness during his or her normal working hours, the employee must return to work.
- (5) Court and jury duty leave include necessary travel time.

SECTION 7.08 Military Leave

- (1) An active member of the U.S. Army Reserve, the U.S. Naval Reserve, the U.S. Air Force Reserve, the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve, the U.S. Coast Guard Reserve, the U.S. Public Health Service Reserve, or the Kentucky National Guard required to serve under order or for training duty shall be granted leave without loss of the regular compensation for a period not to exceed the number of working days specified in KRS 61.394, per federal fiscal year (October-September), provided the military orders require absence from work. Any additional military leave time must be charged to accumulated annual or compensatory leave balance or be charged as leave without pay.

- (2) The appointing authority may require a copy of the military orders requiring the absence from work before granting military leave.
- (3) Any employee who enters active military duty must be granted leave of absence without pay for the period of that duty up to six years. Although the appointing authority must grant such leave, the employee must request it in order to avoid being dismissed for abandonment of position without obtaining official leave.
- (4) Upon return from active duty, the employee will be restored to a job of like seniority, status, and pay under KRS Chapter 61. An employee restored from military leave is treated as though he or she was in continuous service.
- (5) Any employee who is the spouse of an active member of the U.S. Army Reserve, the U.S. Naval Reserve, the U.S. Air Force Reserve, the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve, the U.S. Coast Guard Reserve, the U.S. Public Health Service Reserve, or the Kentucky National Guard who is called upon to serve under federal orders (deployment) shall be granted one day paid leave prior to deployment and one day paid leave upon return from deployment, per federal fiscal year (October-September).
- (6) The appointing authority may require a copy of the spouse's military orders prior to approving the use of this leave.
- (7) While on military leave, the employee will not earn any annual or sick leave, but will earn months of service time. The employee's increment date will not change.
- (8) A former employee seeking reinstatement who has been rejected or otherwise penalized may, as applicable, file a grievance or appeal as provided in Section 8.

SECTION 7.09 Bereavement Leave

Employees will be entitled to bereavement leave of up to three work days due to the death of a family member, as defined in Section 1.04 of these Policies, or other relatives of close association if approved by the appointing authority. Employees must use accrued paid leave (i.e., compensatory, annual, sick or holiday time) or leave without pay during the absence. Upon the request of the employee, bereavement leave may be extended at the discretion of the appointing authority.

SECTION 7.10 Leave Without Pay

- (1) Employees may request leave without pay if they have used all of their annual, holiday, and compensatory leave. An employee may request leave without pay by submitting a written request to his or her appointing authority.

- (2) The appointing authority may place an employee on leave without pay for a period not to exceed three working days for the purpose of removing the employee from the workplace due to disciplinary or other work-related causes and for the purpose of determining if any further action shall be taken. Administrative leave in excess of three working days shall be approved by the AOC Director or designee.
- (3) The decision to approve or deny a request for leave without pay is within the discretion of the appointing authority or designee.
- (4) The appointing authority must timely submit a PAR reflecting approval of leave without pay to avoid overpayment to the employee.
- (5) If an employee is granted leave without pay, the employee must return to work the next business day after the leave expires.
 - (a) If the employee cannot return to work after the approved leave without pay period ends, the employee must immediately notify the appointing authority or designee.
 - (b) Unless the appointing authority or designee has extended the leave without pay request, failure to report to work after the authorized leave without pay ends will be considered a resignation from employment. This provision does not apply to family medical leave.
- (6) Employees cannot take leave without pay for more than six months.

SECTION 7.11 Absence Without Prior Approval

- (1) Absence without prior approval means an unauthorized or unreported absence. An employee who is absent without prior approval must report the reason for the absence to his or her appointing authority or designee within one hour of the start of the employee's work day. This mandatory time period may only be waived by the appointing authority or designee if there are extraordinary circumstances.
- (2) Absence without prior approval may:
 - (a) Be treated as leave without pay for an employee covered by the provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act; and
 - (b) Constitute grounds for disciplinary action, including dismissal.

SECTION 8. Separations, Disciplinary Actions, and Appeals

SECTION 8.01 Resignation

- (1) An employee who wants to resign his or her position in the KCOJ must notify his or her appointing authority in writing at least 14 calendar days prior to the effective date of the resignation. If the employee provides verbal notice of the resignation and is unwilling or unable to put the notice in writing, the appointing authority must document the verbal notice in writing and have the employee or a witness sign the notification. The appointing authority must notify the AOC HR Department immediately upon receipt of the resignation.
- (2) A resignation is considered accepted immediately upon notification to the appointing authority. However, a resignation may be cancelled after it is received if the appointing authority agrees to the cancellation.
- (3) An employee who fails to notify his or her appointing authority in writing at least 14 calendar days prior to the effective date of the resignation will lose annual leave for each day short of the 14 calendar days. Full-time employees will lose annual leave at the rate of 7.5 hours for each day.
- (4) An employee who resigns his or her position while disciplinary action is pending will be considered to have resigned with prejudice and will not be rehired by the KCOJ without the written approval of the AOC Director or designee.
- (5) An employee who resigns his or her position will not be entitled to any grievance or appeal rights.
- (6) An employee who has been absent without prior approval for a period of three consecutive scheduled work days will be considered to have resigned from employment with the KCOJ and will not be entitled to any grievance or appeal rights.

SECTION 8.02 Grievance Policy

- (1) General
 - (a) The KCOJ recognizes that problems and complaints may arise during the course of the work day. The KCOJ believes that every effort should be made to resolve these differences and concerns, and therefore, the KCOJ has developed a grievance policy.
 - (b) A grievance is a complaint filed by an employee that concerns working conditions or employment actions other than a demotion, dismissal, or disciplinary action that results in a loss of pay or other benefits of employment for greater than three working days. Complaints concerning a demotion, dismissal, or disciplinary action that results in a loss of pay or benefits of employment for greater than three days must be brought pursuant to the appeal procedures set forth in Section 8.06 below.

- (c) An employee who has a grievance must first discuss it with his or her immediate supervisor or appointing authority unless it would not be appropriate under the circumstances. If the employee is unable to resolve the issue with his or her immediate supervisor or appointing authority, the employee may file a written grievance on the KCOJ Employee Complaint Form.
 - (d) An employee will be entitled to file a grievance without interference, coercion, discrimination, or retaliation.
- (2) Grievance Procedure
- (a) A grievance must be filed with the Human Resources Administrator (HRA) in writing on the KCOJ Employee Complaint Form on or before the fifth business day after the work condition or employment action arose or on or before the fifth business day after the employee becomes aware of the employment action or work condition. The written grievance should describe, in detail, the factual basis for the complaint, provide the names of any relevant witnesses, and describe any relevant documents.
 - (b) The HRA will investigate and evaluate the complaint. The HRA will consult with the employee filing the complaint, the appointing authority, relevant witnesses and any other pertinent submissions and sources of information prior to making a recommendation to the HR Director.
 - (c) The HR Director will notify the employee in writing of the decision on the grievance within 30 calendar days of receiving the grievance.
 - (d) If the employee is dissatisfied with the HR Director's decision, the employee may request a review by the AOC Director by filing a written request within five business days after receiving the HR Director's decision. The written request should describe in detail the basis for the review and the relief requested. The AOC Director or designee must issue a written opinion within 30 calendar days. The opinion will be final and not subject to appeal.
 - (e) If the grievance is against the HRA or HR Director, the General Counsel will act in place of the HRA or the HR Director.

SECTION 8.03 Disciplinary Actions

- (1) Disciplinary actions are generally progressive in nature to allow KCOJ employees an opportunity to improve their performance or their behavior and remain a productive employee. The disciplinary actions below are described in a step-by-step method and are intended to provide guidance to the appointing authority. However, the appointing authority may deviate from the disciplinary process depending on the situation.

(a) Step One: Verbal Reprimand

Verbal reprimands are used as warnings for less serious disciplinary matters. Written documentation of the occurrence of the verbal reprimand will be placed in the employee's personnel file.

(b) Step Two: Written Reprimand

A written reprimand must clearly identify the conduct and circumstances for which the employee is being reprimanded, the corrective action to be taken by the employee, and the potential consequences of the employee's failure to correct his or her behavior. The HRA will prepare or review the written reprimand and present it to the appointing authority. The appointing authority or designee must present the written reprimand to the employee in person and in the presence of a witness and have the employee read and sign the reprimand to evidence receipt of the reprimand. The employee has the option of adding his or her comment(s) to the written reprimand. If the employee refuses to sign the written reprimand, the document must indicate such refusal and must be signed by the appointing authority or designee and the witness. The written reprimand will be placed in the employee's official personnel file and will be labeled as a written reprimand.

(c) Step Three: Disciplinary Probation and/or Suspension

(i) Disciplinary Probation

- a. Disciplinary probation will consist of a period of regular employment during which the appointing authority re-evaluates the employee for the purpose of determining whether the employee's deficiencies are being corrected.
- b. An employee may be placed on disciplinary probation for a specified period not to exceed six months. If an employee who is serving a disciplinary probationary period is granted leave in excess of 10 working days, the employee's disciplinary probationary period may be extended for the same length of time as the granted leave.
- c. The HRA will prepare the disciplinary probation letter and present it to the appointing authority. The appointing authority or designee must present the disciplinary probation letter to the employee in person and, in the presence of a witness, have the employee read and sign it to evidence receipt of the probation letter. The employee also has the option of adding his or her comment(s) to the probation letter. If the employee refuses to sign the disciplinary probation letter, the document must indicate such refusal and must be signed by the appointing authority or designee and the witness.
- d. The disciplinary probation letter must contain:

1. The effective date and length of the disciplinary probation period;
 2. The employee's conduct or work performance deficiencies that have resulted in the disciplinary probation;
 3. Corrective action to be taken by the employee; and
 4. A statement notifying the employee that his or her failure to correct the workplace deficiencies, or any additional workplace deficiencies during the probationary period, may result in dismissal from employment.
- e. A copy of the disciplinary probation letter must be placed in the employee's official personnel file.
- f. If a tenured employee is dismissed before the end of the disciplinary probation period, the appeal provisions of Sections 8.05 and 8.06 will apply.

(ii) Suspension

- a. An employee may be suspended with or without pay for a disciplinary cause, not to exceed three working days.
- b. The HRA will prepare the suspension letter and present it to the appointing authority. The appointing authority or designee must issue the suspension letter to the employee in person and, in the presence of a witness, have the employee read and sign the document to evidence receipt of the suspension letter. The employee has the option of adding his or her comment(s) to the suspension letter. If the employee refuses to sign the suspension letter, the document must indicate such refusal and must be signed by the appointing authority or designee and the witness.
- c. The suspension letter must contain:
1. The effective date of the suspension and length of the suspension period;
 2. The employee's conduct and work performance deficiencies that have resulted in the suspension and the corrective action to be taken by the employee; and

3. A statement notifying the employee that his or her failure to correct the workplace deficiencies, or any additional workplace deficiencies during the probationary period, may result in dismissal from employment.
- d. A copy of the suspension letter and a PAR must be submitted to the HRA and placed in the employee's official personnel file.
- e. If the employee files a grievance pursuant to Section 8.02 and the suspension is reversed, the employee will be reinstated with full pay for all working days he or she was suspended without pay.

(2) Investigative Leave

Pending an investigation of any disciplinary matter, the Chief Justice or the AOC Director, after consulting with the appointing authority, may place an employee on paid investigative leave for a period not to exceed five working days. Investigative leave for more than five working days must be approved by the Chief Justice or the AOC Director and may be with or without pay. If the investigative leave is with pay, the employee will not be required to use any earned leave. In all instances of investigative leave, the appointing authority must submit a PAR to the HR Director indicating the effective dates of paid or unpaid leave.

SECTION 8.04 Dismissal

- (1) Whenever the appointing authority has reasonable evidence that an employee under his or her management has substantially deviated from good behavior or satisfactory performance of duties, the appointing authority, after consultation with the HR Director, may dismiss the employee from his or her position.
- (2) Grounds for dismissal include, but are not limited to, the following:
 - (a) Conviction or plea of guilty to any misdemeanor or felony;
 - (b) Refusal or inability to perform reasonable work duties or legal duties required by the appointing authority;
 - (c) Recurring absences or tardiness from duty without good cause or reasonable evidence of good cause;
 - (d) Refusal or inability to follow the prescribed procedures for handling money or maintaining records as required by the KCOJ or by any internal department policies or guidelines;
 - (e) Use of drugs, alcohol, or other intoxicants during working hours or the inability to work efficiently and effectively because of off-duty use of drugs, alcohol, or other intoxicants;

- (f) Unprofessional conduct or habitual rudeness toward fellow employees, supervisors, or the general public;
 - (g) Two or more instances of disciplinary actions taken against an employee during the 24 months before the present dismissal action;
 - (h) Insubordinate conduct or conduct that is intended to embarrass, harass, or bring disrepute to the KCOJ, its employees, or elected officials;
 - (i) Failure to cooperate with an AOC audit or investigation of any kind;
 - (j) Failure to comply with these Policies or other office policies of the employee's department;
 - (k) Theft, intentional damage, or destruction of KCOJ property;
 - (l) Falsification of records; or
 - (m) Unsafe behavior in the workplace including dangerous horseplay and fighting.
- (3) The Chief Justice, as the executive head of the KCOJ, has the constitutional authority and responsibility to act in the best interests of the KCOJ. Accordingly, when the Chief Justice determines that an employee has substantially deviated from good behavior or satisfactory performance of duties, an employee may be dismissed over the objection of the employee's appointing authority.
- (4) The appointing authority, including the Chief Justice when applicable, must follow these procedures when dismissing a tenured employee:
- (a) The appointing authority or designee, after consultation with and review by the HR Director, must present the employee, in writing, with his or her intent to dismiss. The intent to dismiss letter must be signed by the appointing authority or designee and must inform the employee of the following:
 - (i) The reasons for the dismissal including instances of poor work performance or duties, workplace misconduct, or unlawful activity;
 - (ii) Any disciplinary actions taken against the employee within the last 24 months;
 - (iii) The effective date of the impending dismissal;
 - (iv) That he or she is on paid administrative leave for five business days, during which time the employee has a right to a pre-dismissal meeting with his or her appointing authority or designee to refute the reasons for the dismissal; and
 - (v) An explanation of appeal rights available to the tenured employee should he or she disagree with the action of dismissal.

- (b) The intent to dismiss letter will be issued to the employee by the appointing authority in person with a witness present. If the employee is not available, efforts will be made to contact the employee by phone, electronic mail, and U.S. mail to inform the tenured employee of the proposed action.
- (c) The appointing authority or designee must conduct a pre-dismissal meeting within five business days of issuing the intent to dismiss letter, if requested by the employee.
- (d) Employment with the KCOJ will end after the five business days of administrative leave, unless the appointing authority withdraws his or her intention to dismiss. The employee will be notified in writing by U.S. mail.
- (e) Should the employee decide to appeal the dismissal, the procedures outlined in Section 8.06 apply.

SECTION 8.05 Right to Appeal a Disciplinary Action Including Dismissal

- (1) All tenured employees of the KCOJ have the right to appeal the following disciplinary actions within 14 calendar days after receiving written notice: demotions, dismissals and other disciplinary actions that result in loss of pay or other benefits of employment for greater than three days.
- (2) An employee failing to file an appeal before the deadlines described in this Section waives his or her right to any further administrative remedies or actions under these Policies.

SECTION 8.06 Appeal Procedures for Dismissal, Demotion, or Suspension Over Three Days

- (1) Hearing Officers

The Chief Justice shall appoint seven retired Judges or Justices in good standing with the Kentucky Bar Association to serve as Hearing Officers. The term of service for the appointed Hearing Officers will be two years. Only one appointee will serve as a Hearing Officer for an appeal. If the Chief Justice directly dismisses the employee involved in an appeal, a Special Hearing Officer will be appointed by the Deputy Chief Justice.

- (2) Appeal Procedures

- (a) A tenured employee seeking an appeal must submit a written appeal on the KCOJ appeal form to the HRA within 14 calendar days following receipt of the disciplinary action, dismissal, or final decision. The appeal form is the only document that may be submitted.
- (b) The appeal must state the specific reasons for the appeal and include a copy of the dismissal letter or notice of disciplinary action.

- (c) After receiving the appeal, the HRA will designate a Hearing Officer from the list approved by the Chief Justice. The HRA will make such designation after determining that the proposed Hearing Officer is available to serve and does not have a conflict of interest. The HRA will then provide the employee and appointing authority written notice of the designation.
 - (d) The Hearing Officer must conduct a hearing within 45 calendar days from the date that the appeal was filed with the HRA.
- (3) Prehearing Conference
 - (a) The Hearing Officer may convene and conduct a prehearing conference, in-person or by telephone, at his or her own direction or upon request of one of the parties to the appeal upon reasonable notice to all parties. The purpose of the prehearing conference will be to explore mediation and settlement possibilities, prepare stipulations, clarify issues, issue subpoenas, issue rulings regarding witnesses and evidence, and other matters that will promote the orderly and prompt conduct of the hearing. The Hearing Officer may require the parties to submit a proffer of the expected testimony of proposed witnesses.
 - (b) Upon conclusion of a prehearing conference, the Hearing Officer shall issue a prehearing order incorporating all matters determined at the prehearing conference. If a prehearing conference is not held, the hearing officer may issue a prehearing order, based upon the appeal documents, to regulate the conduct of the hearing.
 - (c) The prehearing conference will be closed to the public.
- (4) Conduct of Hearing
 - (a) The Hearing Officer shall preside over the hearing and shall regulate the course of the proceedings in a manner that will promote the orderly and prompt conduct of the hearing. When a prehearing order has been issued, the hearing officer shall regulate the hearing in conformity therewith.
 - (b) The Hearing Officer, at appropriate stages of the appeal, shall give the parties an opportunity to file motions, objections, offers of settlement, proposed findings of fact, and a recommended order.
 - (c) The Hearing Officer may issue subpoenas and discovery orders at his or her own discretion when requested by a party and address all matters thereto.

- (d) To the extent necessary for the full disclosure of all relevant facts and issues, the Hearing Officer shall afford all parties the opportunity to present opening and closing arguments, respond, present evidence and argument, conduct cross-examination, and submit rebuttal evidence, except as restricted by a prehearing order or a determination by the Hearing Officer that the proposed evidence is irrelevant, immaterial, unduly repetitious, or otherwise inadmissible. If the facts of the matter would give rise to a criminal proceeding, no person shall be compelled to give evidence against himself or herself.
- (e) Any party to an appeal may participate in-person or be represented by counsel. The Hearing Officer may conduct all or part of the hearing or a prehearing conference by telephone, if each party to the hearing has an opportunity to hear the entire proceeding as it occurs. The Hearing Officer shall make the determination of whether to permit all or part of the hearing to be conducted by telephone. The Hearing Officer shall have the authority to administer oaths to witnesses for each party, conduct investigations and other related fact-finding efforts, and interview the witness(es) presented by each party. The Hearing Officer shall ensure that an accurate and complete record of the hearing is made.
- (f) The employee and the appointing authority or designee may present witnesses and documentary evidence to be evaluated by the Hearing Officer. It shall be the sole responsibility of each party to assure the attendance of their respective witnesses. In the event that a proposed witness fails to appear or the employee fails to request a subpoena be issued by the Hearing Officer, a continuance will not be granted, except for extraordinary circumstances as determined by the Hearing Officer.
- (g) If a party fails to attend or participate in a prehearing conference or hearing, or fails to comply with the orders of the Hearing Officer, the Hearing Officer may adjourn the proceedings and issue a default order granting or denying relief as appropriate, or may conduct the proceedings without the participation of the defaulting party, having due regard for the interests of justice and the orderly and prompt conduct of the proceedings. A default order shall be considered a recommended order.
- (h) The hearing may be closed to the public for good cause shown, at the discretion of the Hearing Officer.
- (i) No later than 14 calendar days prior to the hearing, unless otherwise ordered by the Hearing Officer at the prehearing conference, each party shall provide to the HRA the documentary evidence to be introduced at the hearing, as well as a list of witnesses to be called. The HRA shall forward, as soon as practical, the documentary evidence and the list of witnesses to be introduced by each party to the Hearing Officer and the opposing party. Nothing in this section shall be construed as giving a party the right to examine or copy the personal notes, observations, or conclusions of the appointing authority or other KCOJ personnel, unless exculpatory in nature, nor shall it be construed as allowing access to the work product of counsel for the KCOJ.

- (j) In all hearings, unless otherwise provided by statute or federal law, the party proposing that the KCOJ take action has the burden to show the propriety of the action. The KCOJ has the burden to show the propriety of a disciplinary action imposed. The party asserting an affirmative defense has the burden to establish that defense. The party with the burden of proof on any issue has the burden of going forward and the ultimate burden of persuasion as to that issue. The ultimate burden of proof in all hearings is met by a preponderance of evidence in the record. Failure to meet the burden of proof is grounds for a recommended order from the Hearing Officer.
- (k) The Hearing Officer shall issue his or her findings of fact and conclusions based solely upon the evidence on the record. The Hearing Officer shall exclude evidence that is irrelevant, immaterial, unduly repetitious, or excludable on constitutional or statutory grounds or on the basis of evidentiary privilege recognized in the courts of this Commonwealth. Hearsay evidence may be admissible, if in the opinion of the Hearing Officer, it is of the type that reasonable and prudent persons would rely upon in their daily affairs.
- (l) All testimony shall be made under oath. Any part of the evidence may be received in written form if doing so will expedite the hearing without substantial prejudice to the interests of any party. All objections to evidentiary offers shall be noted in the record.
- (m) The Hearing Officer shall issue the written findings and recommendation to the AOC Director within 60 calendar days from the date the appeal was filed. The Hearing Officer may request, in writing, an extension of time not to exceed 30 calendar days from the Chief Justice, or Deputy Chief Justice when appropriate, which may be granted based upon good cause shown.
- (n) The Hearing Officer's recommendation will be copied to all parties and the HRA for entry into the employee's personnel file. The Hearing Officer's final recommendation is not subject to further administrative appeal.
- (o) The AOC Director will evaluate the recommendation of the Hearing Officer and make the final decision in regard to the appeal. The AOC Director's final decision is not subject to further administrative appeal.
- (p) If either party is dissatisfied with the decision of the AOC Director, an original action may be filed within 30 calendar days after the date of the AOC Director's final decision in Franklin Circuit Court or the Circuit Court of the county in which the appealing party resides.
