IN RE: Authorization for the Jefferson Family Court Term's Participation in the Jefferson Family Recovery Court Program

ORDER

The Kentucky Cabinet for Health and Family Services, Centerstone of Kentucky, Inc., and the National Council of Jewish Women have entered into an agreement regarding the implementation of the Jefferson Family Recovery Court program, a substance treatment and family support program addressing substance abuse and co-occurring issues in Dependency, Neglect and Abuse dockets.

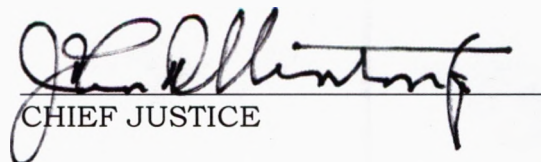

The Jefferson Family Court Term has agreed to establish a special docket to accommodate the implementation of the above-referenced program and to provide added resources and support. Accordingly, the Supreme Court of Kentucky hereby authorizes the Jefferson Family Court Term's participation in the Jefferson Family Recovery Court program.

This Order is entered under the authority granted to the Kentucky Supreme Court by Section 116 of the Kentucky Constitution to prescribe rules and issue orders of practice and procedure for the Kentucky Court of Justice and jurisdictions therein.

The Jefferson Family Court Term's participation in the Jefferson Family Recovery Court program will be governed by this Order and all relevant and applicable statutes and rules not inconsistent with this Order.

This Order shall be effective upon entry for and until further Order of this Court.

Entered this 24th day of October 2018.
